

MSc in European Integration

General Information

This document contains information and the form for admission to the MSc in European Integration (EuroMaster), an Advanced Master programme at the Institute for European Studies (IES), VUB.

In order to allow students to combine the EuroMaster with other (e.g. professional) activities, classes are organised in the evenings, after working hours. The EuroMaster can be followed on a full-time (1 year) or part-time (2 years) basis.

Admission requirements

- 1) A university degree equivalent to a Master's degree in Social, Economic or Political Sciences, Business, Law and/or Contemporary History consisting of a programme of at least 240 ECTS. If your degree is not within these disciplines, relevant work experience in these or related fields may qualify;
- 2) excellent study results for both prior degrees of 70% (2nd class honours upper division, Belgian equivalent; upper 2:1 UK equivalent, 2.8/4 GPA);
- 3) Recent certified proficiency in English. We refer to section 4 of this form for the minimum proficiency scores, as well as for cases in which you can be waived from providing an English language test certificate.

Deadline

The programme accepts and reviews applications on a rolling basis, starting in October.

Programme dates

Week of 23 September 2019 – Start of lectures.

For part-time students /reenrolments – start of lectures in 2nd year: week of 21 September 2020

Document checklist

Please ensure that you send a complete file, including all of the documents below. When sending in these documents, please make sure the file names start with the codes indicated in the table below (A1, A2, B1, etc.).

A1. This application form duly completed and signed
A2. A complete and up-to-date CV
B1. Original diploma of the candidate's most recent or relevant degree^{1 2}
C1. Original and official academic transcripts of the candidate's most recent or relevant degree
C3. Translation (certified) of academic transcript if not in English, Dutch, French or German languages
E1. Recent English proficiency certificate, if applicable and available ³
P1. Copy of passport or identity document
P2. Photograph of candidate

How to apply

1. Please send your complete application (see document checklist) via the Application page of the programme's website: <https://www.euromasterinbrussels.eu/application/>
2. We aim at providing you with a decision within two weeks from receiving your complete application.
3. If selected, you will receive an acceptance letter as well as a request for the payment of the first instalment of the tuition fee. The payment has to be made in full before the start of the academic year.

For any questions, call us on +32 2 614 80 08, or send an e-mail to euromaster@ies.be.

When arriving at the Programme, please make sure you have secured the minimum amount for living expenses necessary for the full period of the academic year(s). For sources of financial support, please see the IES website.

¹ The EuroMaster is a Masters after Master programme in which candidates must already have a Master's degree. In the absence of a Master's degree, an undergraduate degree of 240 ECTS is also acceptable.

² If you are still in the process of obtaining your previous degree, you can already apply and should indicate this information in section 2 of this form.

³ For those candidates whose previous degree was not in English or English is not their mother tongue, a recent certificate of proficiency in English is required (see section 4 of this form).

Limited tuition fee waivers are available. They are awarded on the basis of demonstrated need and merit. Students can apply for a waiver by writing a personal statement in this box, outlining the ways in which they satisfy these criteria. Students must attach evidence of need and merit as part of the overall application file. The Academic Board awards these waivers at the same time as admission into the programme.

8. Select your EuroMaster Options and Specialisations

Options:

Full-time or Part-time students

The EuroMaster programme is offered in both full-time and part-time options. Please choose one:

Option (all classes – regardless of the option - take place on weekdays from 18:00-21:00. Part-time students will typically have 2-3 lectures per week, full-time students 4-5 lectures, although this may differ in certain periods).

<input type="checkbox"/>	Full-time (One academic year, September to June)
<input type="checkbox"/>	Part-time (Two academic years, based on 30 ECTS of classes per year)

Specialisations:

The EuroMaster operates by offering students a core of common compulsory courses complemented by two specialisation options. These two specialisations should be selected out of a list of four, that reflect the four prominent themes into which the EuroMaster degree is divided: European Economy, Migration and Europe, European External Relations and Security Policy, and European Environmental Governance. Students must at this point indicate which of the two specialisations they will be pursuing as a EuroMaster student. Further information can be found on the website.

Two specialisations for which you want to apply (Please select no less and no more than 2)
