

ADVANCED MASTER IN EUROPEAN INTEGRATION

60 ECTS

Specialise in 2 EU policy fields!

FULL-TIME (1Y) AND PART-TIME (2Y) TRACK

The programme in a nutshell

- 60 ECTS Advanced Master degree
- Evening classes (6-9 PM) – ideal for professionals
- Full-time (1y) and part-time (2y) track
- Limited class size – high interaction
- 6 different specialisation combinations (chosen combination of 2 policy fields will be mentioned on your degree)
- Interdisciplinary programme organised by a Jean Monnet Centre of Excellence at the Vrije Universiteit Brussel, on the doorstep of the main EU institutions

What you will get out of it

- Advanced academic understanding of the EU's policies, institutions and socio-economic processes
- Increased autonomous, critical and innovative thinking, constructively challenging dominant theories
- A wealth of new connections of EU professionals in your network. Many alumni have leading positions in EU or (inter)national institutions or corporates.
- A diverse and multicultural group of friends for life

'As a mid-career practitioner with a political science and development background I had been searching all over for a postgraduate programme on climate change and migration. At the IES I found the perfect match. The EuroMaster is offering a unique combination of in-depth studies on migration and climate change and valuable insights into the history and current developments of the EU's fascinating integration project.'

Heidi Solheim Nordbeck, 2017-18 student

A CAREFULLY DESIGNED EVENING PROGRAMME

Who can apply?

To qualify for admission you need to have:

- a university degree equivalent to a Master's degree (preferably in social, economic or political sciences, business, law, or contemporary history) consisting of a programme of at least 240 ECTS
- excellent academic results and references
- proven proficiency in English (see programme website for details)

What does it cost?

For updated tuition fees and study costs please check our website www.euromasterinbrussels.eu.

The Programme offers a limited number of scholarships, that take the form of partial tuition waivers. These waivers are awarded on the basis of a separate request, submitted as a part of your application. They are awarded upon an assessment of merit and demonstrable need.

What can you study?

After the 4 mandatory courses Economics of European Integration, Policy-making and Interest Representation in the EU, History and Law of the EU, and Research Methods Lab (in total 21 credits), students take 2 pre-selected specialisation options (24 credits), to be chosen from the list of 4 below. You close off the programme with a Master's thesis (15 credits).
