

MSc in European Integration

General Information

This document contains information and the form for admission to the MSc in European Integration (EuroMaster), an Advanced Master programme at the Brussels School of Governance (of which the Institute for European Studies (IES) is a member) at the Vrije Universiteit Brussel (VUB).

In order to allow students to combine the EuroMaster with other (e.g. professional) activities, classes are organised in the evenings, after working hours. The EuroMaster can be followed either in one or in two years.

Admission requirements

- 1) A Master's degree, or equivalent of at least 240 ECTS in Social, Economic or Political Sciences, Business, Law and/or Contemporary History. If your degree is not within these disciplines, relevant work experience in these or related fields may qualify;
- 2) Excellent study results for prior degrees of 70% (2nd class honours upper division, Belgian equivalent; upper 2:1 UK equivalent, 2.8/4 GPA);
- 3) Recent certified proficiency in English. We refer to section 4 of this form for the minimum proficiency scores, as well as for cases in which you can be waived from providing an English language test certificate.

Deadline

The programme accepts and reviews applications starting in October. Please visit our website here for the application deadlines.

For 2022-23 enrolments, the deadline to apply for waivers is 15 April 2022.

Programme dates

26 September 2022: Start of lectures.

For part-time students / reenrolments – start of lectures in 2nd year: 25 September 2023.

(Please make sure that in the comments section of your payment you mention 'EuroMaster application fee' + your name)
2. Please send your complete application (see document checklist) via the Application page of the programme's website: <https://www.euomasterinbrussels.eu/application/>
3. We aim, but cannot guarantee, to provide you with a decision within two weeks from receiving your complete application.
4. If selected, you will receive an acceptance letter as well as a request for the payment of the first instalment of the tuition fee. The payment has to be made in full before the start of the academic year.

For any questions, call us on +32 2 614 80 01, or send an e-mail to admissions_bsog@vub.be

¹ The EuroMaster is a Masters after Master programme in which candidates must already have a Master's degree. In the absence of a Master's degree, an equivalent degree of 240 ECTS is also acceptable if the equivalence attestation is sent in time to the secretariat.

² If you are still in the process of obtaining your previous degree, you can already apply and should indicate this information in section 2 of this form.

³ For those candidates whose previous degree was not in English or English is not their mother tongue, a recent certificate of proficiently in English is required (see section 4 of this form).

When starting the Programme, please make sure you have secured the minimum amount for living expenses necessary for the full period of the academic year(s). For sources of financial support, please see the EuroMaster website.

APPLICATION FORM

MSc in European Integration (EuroMaster)
Vrije Universiteit Brussel

Academic Year: 2022-2023

Please tick this box – it is a mandatory confirmation without which we are not able to process your application:

I, the undersigned, herewith confirm that I am aware that my application will only be processed (1) as soon as I have submitted a complete application with all the required documents mentioned in the checklist, and (2) as soon as the Brussels School of Governance has received my payment of the 50 EUR application fee.

1. Select your EuroMaster Options and Specialisations

Options:

One-year or two-year option

The EuroMaster programme is offered in both one-year and two-year options. Please choose one:

Option (all classes – regardless of the option - take place on weekdays from 18:00-21:00. Two-year students will typically have 2-3 lectures per week, one-year students 4-5 lectures, although this may differ in certain periods).

<input type="checkbox"/>	One academic year, September to June
<input type="checkbox"/>	Two academic years, based on 30 ECTS of classes average per year

Specialisations:

The EuroMaster operates by offering students a core of common compulsory courses complemented by two specialisation options. These two specialisations should be selected out of a list of four, that reflect the four prominent themes into which the EuroMaster degree is divided: European Economy, Migration and Europe, European External Relations and Security Policy, and European Environmental Governance. Students must at this point indicate which of the two specialisations they will be pursuing as a EuroMaster student. Further information can be found in the Programme & Curriculum section of this web page:

3. Current and previous higher education

Note: even if you are still in the process of obtaining your previous degree, you can already apply and should indicate this information in this section. If the Academic Board then decides that you meet all other admission criteria you will be accepted on the condition that you provide us with your diploma and transcript at the very latest before the Programme starts and that you obtain the required grades to start the programme. In this case, please also mention in the table below the date (as precise as possible) by which you will obtain the degree.

Institution ⁴	Date (month, year)		Degree title	ECTS	Language of instruction	Fields of study: minor - major	Result: GPA / distinction / % average ⁵
	Start	Graduated / expected

4. Motivation

The motivation statement is a description (max. 500 words) of your reasons for wishing to enrol in the programme and your suitability. Please be as concise as you possibly can and use your space wisely.

⁴ An equivalence certificate is required if education carried out in a non-EU university – see last page of this form

⁵ Minimum requirement: a distinction in a Masters, or 70% in recent 240 ECTS equivalent degree. If you mention your GPA result, please also mention the maximum GPA score possible, e.g. 2.8/4.

5. English Proficiency

As a starting point, every student who applies must provide recent certified proof of proficiency in English, by means of one of the five tests with the required minimum level or score indicated below. Students will be waived from having to produce such recent English language test certificate in the following cases (please tick the relevant box if this is applicable to you):

- English is your mother tongue
- You have obtained a previous degree of at least 60 ECTS entirely taught in English (please make sure this degree is mentioned in section 2). In this case, please include proof, by adding to this application a document confirming this, issued by the university where the degree was taught.
- You have a certificate which is older than 2 years but you can prove you have been working in English since that time, please tick here, mention below and provide an attestation by your employer/s

In all other cases, please indicate your English language test certificate in the table below (if already obtained at the time of application). If you have not obtained this certificate yet, you can nevertheless already apply. If the Academic Board then decides that you meet all other admission criteria you will be accepted on the condition that you provide us with your English certificate, at the very latest before the Programme starts.

Cancellation Policy:

In case of cancellation before the start of the academic year, any tuition fees already paid will be reimbursed, with the exception of the 1,000€ pre-registration fee. Cancellations after the start of the academic year but before 1 December will result in a reimbursement of 50% of the total tuition fee minus the 1,000€ pre-registration fee, unless the student has received a maximum waiver in which case no tuition fees will be reimbursed. Cancellations after 1 December will not be reimbursed.

The pre-registration fee (1.000€) on any Brussels School of Governance programme is non-refundable, unless cancellation in a programme is due to events beyond the control of the applicant, otherwise known as force majeure (for example, if the student applied for a visa but was unable to obtain it, or if due to medical reasons the required previous degree was not obtained). In those cases, the full pre-registration fee will be refunded.

⁶ Incorrect or falsified information will result in expulsion from the programme.
